

HOGG History of Geology Group of The Geological Society
Open Meeting at Burlington House on Thursday 18 June 2015

9.00 Doors open and Registration begins

9.40 Welcome, etc

Session 1 Building Stones

9.45-10.15

Kate Andrew 'A Thousand Years of Building-Stone' Project in two Welsh Border Counties

10.15-10.45

Roger Cordiner Some Maps, Measures and Models of Building Stone Use

Coffee & Biscuits

Session 2 Opening Decades of the 19th Century

11.15-11.45

Geoffrey Mead Brighton and Hove Basement: Geological Basis of a Conurbation

11.45-12.15

Anthony Brook Tambora 200: Supervolcanoes and the Course of History

12.15-1.00

Adelene Buckland Geology and Fiction 1815-1850

Lunch

Session 3 Our Geological Heritage

1.50-2.45

Rob Butler Geoheritage and the UK's most significant Geological Sites

2.45-3.15

Sam Scriven Interpreting Geoheritage: Challenges and Themes

Case study of the World Heritage Site of the Jurassic Coast

3.15-3.45

Melanie Border The Importance of Global Geoparks

Case study of the English Riviera Geopark

3.45-4.15

John Cooper The Importance of Being RIGS!

Case study of the Sussex Geodiversity Sites

Tea & Biscuits

Session 4 Miscellany

4.45-5.15

Paul Sowan Geology, Groundwater and Tunnelling Problems at Merstham, East Surrey

5.15-5.45

Phil Stone The Mineral Prospecting Expedition to the South Atlantic islands

by the Scottish geologist, David Ferguson, 1912-1914

Conference Organiser: anthony.brook27@btinternet.com

Registration Form for the

HOGG Open Meeting at Burlington House on Thursday 18 June 2015

Name(s) _____

Postal Address _____

_____ Tel: _____

Email address _____

Conference Fee: Members of HOGG---£20 All others---£25

Please make cheques payable to HOGG: forward this form and your cheque to the Conference

Organiser: Anthony Brook, 15 Cambourne Court, Shelley Road, Worthing, BN11 4BQ